Cycle Alpha V is live on Dec 14 & Dec 15:

Prospectors, it's that time of the month again! This Friday and Saturday the jump gates to Fortuna III will open once again!

Join fellow adventurers and opportunists for two days of nonstop action! Go it your own way in the afternoon in Solo Mode or join forces with your friends in Squad Mode in the evening. Or better yet, have it both ways (see exact times below).

Your help, support and feedback is crucial to our development process, and we want to show our gratitude. Therefore all participants of the alpha phases will receive rewards when the game is live (beta). We still need to decide on the details, but we will do our absolute best to make it worth your time.

In Alpha V you'll be able to communicate with your pact and team mates using the newly implemented match and voice chats. You can also try out a new contract category and three new abilities.

We've also started a massive overhaul of the central area of the map to make the final stage of the match more exciting. We will add more to it and tweak it in the future, but you will see some significant changes already.

Finally, we've gone through all the community feedback of Alpha IV and addressed it. So expect plenty of balancing changes, bug fixes mod tweaks, etc. and as always, please let us know what you think about it.
